Wentworth Falls
Furber Stairs
Three Sisters
Jamison Valley
Scenic Railway

Optional Activities (for overnight packages - paid locally in AUD$ from)

Jenolan Caves	$77-115
Aboriginal Quest	$75-$95
Canyoning	$165-$199
Abseiling	$99-$189
Horse Riding	$90-$130

You may see wild Eastern Grey Kangaroos in native bushlands at our first stop and you'll be amazed at their size! A two hour walk through changing vegetation takes you into Wentworth Falls. After lunch (included), we walk down the historic Furber Stairs (all 860 of them!) into Jamison Valley through lush World Heritage rainforest. You will see the beautiful Katoomba Falls and the iconic rock formations of the 'Three Sisters'. From the bottom of the Jamison Valley, we jump aboard the Scenic Railway – the world's steepest railway (you'll find out why!) – and take a ride back up to the valley rim. Then relax as we cruise back into Sydney after an action packed day! (L)

Bring: Sturdy walking shoes, hat and sunscreen, water bottle, camera.

Included: Experienced guide, lunch, scenic railway and national park entry fees.

Note: Tour is operated as a code-share with Oz Experience. Passengers staying longer, will arrive at the Katoomba YHA at approximately 4.00pm.

Highlights

Three Wine Tastings
Ku-Ring-Gai Chase National Park
Picnic Lunch

As we reach the point where city becomes country we drive into the Ku-Ring-Gai Chase National Park – the second-oldest national park in Sydney. The park is surrounded by beautiful beaches and coves, mudflats and mangroves and the views are spectacular. We'll learn about Aboriginal history and native animals and see ancient rock carvings. Enter the Hunter Valley via Wollombi, first stop is appropriately the picturesque Wollombi Wines Vineyard. It's here we have our lunch, which is included. Taste boutique wines from Mt View Estate which is set against the backdrop of the Mount View Mountain range. Our final winery for the day is Savannah Estate, before we return to Sydney after a day of culture and wine tasting.

Bring: Money for wine purchases!

Included: Three wine tastings, winery lunch and experienced guide.

Note: Tour is operated as a code-share with Oz Experience. Wineries may change without advance notice.
