1 Day Penguin Parade & Koala Highlights

Highlights

- Wildlife up close
- Sunset at Penguin Parade
- Coastal Walks
- Swim at a Surf Beach
- Penguin Parade
- Visitor Centre

Meet some furry Australian creatures up close at a fantastic wildlife park. Phillip Island is just over the bridge and the island is known for its natural beauty, sandy beaches, rugged cliffs and unique wildlife experience. When the surf's up at Woolamai Beach it's really pumping; jump in for a swim or a take a walk along the coast. Stroll along the Nobbies boardwalk, which is home to a colony of fur seals. After a pizza dinner at Cowes, we head to the penguin parade. As the day fades, you'll witness the littlest penguins in the world emerge from the ocean and waddle onto the shore – it's a truly magical experience! (LD)

1 Day Great Ocean Road Experience

Highlights

- Great Ocean Road
- Wildlife
- Shipwreck Coast
- Bells Beach
- Twelve Apostles
- London Bridge

We pass through coastal town Torquay, before stopping for morning tea at Bells Beach, famous for its impressive surf. As we twist and wind our way along the spectacular Great Ocean Road, you'll enjoy loads of great coastal photo opportunities. We'll even stop to spot koalas! We reach the seaside town of Apollo Bay and there's time for a swim in the magnificent Southern Ocean. After lunch, stretch your legs in the Otway National Park and be amazed at the Twelve Apostles. There's many tragic tales of shipwrecks at Loch Ard Gorge, see the now collapsed London Bridge and the quaint fishing village of Port Campbell. We stop for dinner (own expense) on our return journey to Melbourne. (L)
