Hobart to Strahan

First we travel to Mount Field National Park, where we stretch our legs on the Russell Falls and Tall Trees walks. We continue on to Lake St Clair for a view of Australia's deepest lake. On our way to Strahan we hike and explore the Franklin Gordon National Park. We spend tonight in our own exclusive accommodation in the historic coastal township of Strahan where your guide will fill you in on the amazing history of 'pining, mining and convicts' (LD)

Strahan to Cradle Mountain Region

This morning we enjoy the intriguing history of Strahan with options to suit everyone! Take a stroll or a bike ride (free) along the foreshore or up Water Tower Hill for a priceless lookout over Macquarie Harbour and Ocean Beach or walk through a rainforest (if you're quiet and lucky you may even spot a platypus). Later, we take a walk through the Henty Sand Dunes, where you can take a quad bike tour (own expense). In the afternoon we visit the historic 'Silver City' of Zeehan and then continue on to our overnight lodge accommodation. (BLD)

Cradle Mountain to Devonport

Today we discover the World Heritage Cradle Mountain National Park. Enjoy the pure air with a stunning walk around Dove Lake, or challenge yourself with a more strenuous hike (unguided) to view Cradle Mountain. We spend this afternoon exploring more of the state's mid north before our arrival in Devonport. (BL)

Devonport to Bicheno

St Columbus Falls, with its ancient rainforest back drop is our first stop today. Continuing through the changing landscape of heritage farms, rainforest and mining towns we spend some of the afternoon at the breathtaking Bay of Fires. Here you can take a stroll along the gleaming white sands or a swim in the clear turquoise water (weather permitting). Tonight we stay in the seaside township of Bicheno. After dinner, you can choose to take a tour to see little penguins nesting (own expense). (LD)

Bicheno to Pt Arthur

This morning we drive into the stunning Freycinet National Park for sweeping views over Wineglass Bay. You may choose to hike to Wineglass Beach via the lookout or for those more adventurous; a hike to the top of Mount Amos. Enjoy the view as we travel along the picturesque Tasman Peninsula to Port Arthur, where we stay tonight. Take a spine chilling Port Arthur Ghost Tour for a glimpse into the historic past of this penal colony (at own expense). (BLD)

Accommodation

All tours are accommodated and we offer HOSTEL (dorm or twin/double with shared facilities) or ensuite MOTEL/LODGE style (2-3 star ensuite). All twin/double rooms are subject to availability at time of booking. Motel/Lodge style may be located on different premises to hostel accommodation. Port Arthur to Hobart

We'll spend this morning exploring the Port Arthur Historic Site and take a short boat cruise around the harbour. A short while later come face to face with Tasmanian Devils and hand feed kangaroos at the Tasmanian Devil Conservation Park (additional cost - not open Dec 25). We check out a range of other scenic sites on the Tasman Peninsula as we travel on to Hobart. (BL)

Hobart to Launceston

(NTW6HL only)

We travel north along the historic Midland Highway, passing numerous colonial inns and quaint villages including Bagdad, Oatlands and Campbelltown. We make a stop in Ross, where you'll see Australia's oldest convict built bridge and have the opportunity to purchase breakfast (own expense). We'll also see the Ross Bakery, which is legendary in Japan and those in the 'know' will be in search of Kiki the witch! Our arrival into Launceston is mid morning.

Bring: Sturdy walking shoes (ankle high), hat and sunscreen, towel and toiletries, swimming gear, warm clothing (even in summer), waterproof jacket and trousers, water bottle, insect repellent, camera and film, motion sickness tablets.
