Wayoutback Australian Safaris strongly recommends that all Travellers have adequate Travel Insurance. Not only does it protect you against the costs of injury but it also gives you cancellation cover. Our underwriters are World Nomads.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Wayoutback Australian Safaris Pty Limited reserves the right to amend safari times, itineraries and fares for its safaris as circumstances, time of year and operational reasons occur. There will be no refunds in these circumstances or for reasons such as delays incurred due to mechanical failure or weather conditions. Wayoutback Australian Safaris cannot guarantee exact pick-up and drop-off times and will accept no responsibility in the event of cancellation fees from other connecting services. Wayoutback Australian Safaris reserves the right to cancel a safari or arrange an alternative operator if group numbers are insufficient. Balances paid by credit card are subject to a merchant levy. Wayoutback Australian Safaris accepts no responsibility for any injury, illness or other such accident sustained whilst on safari with Wayoutback or while engaged in any activities with other tourist operators that may not be part of the Wayoutback itinerary but available during a Wayoutback safari. While all care is taken, the responsibility of children on tour rests entirely with the parent or caregiver. Central Australia can be hazardous with camp fires, splinters (some trees and shrubs are toxic), jagged rocks, cliffs, sun exposure and poisonous reptiles and insects. All customers, including children, must wear shoes at all times, use sunblock and wear hats. Individual Aboriginal location visits cannot be guaranteed for cultural reasons. In the event of a location or host not being available the fare for this component will be refunded. Wayoutback Australian Safaris accepts no liability for lost, stolen or damaged property and strongly recommends clients have Travel Insurance, including Cancellation Cover. Cancellation fees apply.
